

“ Rebuilding Salmon fisheries ”

An invitation to North West anglers to see and discuss projects and programmes to reverse the trend in declining salmon stocks

Contributions & proceeds to the Atlantic Salmon Trust`s Smolt tracking programme

7.00pm - Friday 8th February 2018 - North Lakes Hotel - J40 Penrith

with a Hot & Cold buffet served at 7.00pm & Presentations starting at 7.30pm

David Bamford

Senior Fisheries Officer for the Yorkshire Dales Rivers Trust (formerly the Ure Salmon Trust)

“ Success in regenerating the River Ure - a project to restore a lost Salmon fishery ”

Vic Price & Andy Hurst

Hatchery project coordinators and L&WFA/Lune RT

“ Results from the Lune Hatchery - introducing and planting out Wild broodstock hatchery reared eggs into unpopulated nursery streams”

Matt Newton

Salmon tracking project coordinator for the Atlantic Salmon Trust

“Observing the Unseen - Using Tracking Technology to Understand Salmon Migration.”

*Donations at the door will be made for the AST Smolt tracking programme fund Refreshments and seating is limited and by advance booking only with

Adrian Brown (REDFA) by email - adrianbrown884@hotmail.co.uk

Tel - 07768 708231 & 016973 71355

Event hosted by CRAGG - Cumbria River Authority Governance Group

in collaboration with REDFA - River Eden & District Fisheries Association & NWATFCC - North West Angling Trust Fisheries Consultative Council

Venue - North Lakes Hotel - J40 Penrith. CA10 8QT 01768 868111

<https://www.northlakeshotel.co.uk/>